Avenir's Unique Vision

To some, Avenir Palm Beach Gardens appears to be just another development within the city of Palm Beach. However, its creators intend for it to be so much more than that and are committed to making their unique vision for the community a reality. With over 4,752 acres to work with, their goal is to create a town where residents don't have to travel far to have their needs met. Whether that means finding somewhere to eat, play golf, walk their dog, or get some work done, Avenir is designed to have it all. This level of convenience and comfort is unheard of, particularly when combined with the sustainability efforts of the entire development.

Avenir is more than just a town to live in; it's also a growing hub that will soon offer a downtown area with amenities like coffee shops, restaurants, offices, and even medical and schooling facilities. With everything set to be within your reach, it's easy to see why Avenir's vision is unmatched.

The Masterminds Behind The Avenir Community

A community like Avenir doesn't spring up overnight; instead, it takes plenty of time, resources, and dedication from those who believe in it. Avenir Palm Beach Gardens is set to have a total of 3,900 new homes by the time of its completion. Several notable builders have been brought on board to reach this goal, including:

- Toll Brothers
- GL Homes
- Akel Homes
- DiVosta
- Kenco Communities of Avenir
- K. Hovnanian Homes

Each of these builders is inspired by a distinct vision for the community, giving potential buyers many options to choose from as they search for their dream home. Each builder remains committed to crafting elegant, luxurious, and high-quality properties for future residents. These joint efforts only add to Avenir's appeal, as it gives homebuyers the opportunity to find a home that they will genuinely be happy with.

Available Communities Within Avenir

While all residents within Avenir have access to the same amenities, the community will be comprised of several distinct neighborhoods. Some of these neighborhoods will cater more to families seeking a cozy, practical home or townhouse, while others might appeal more to young professionals searching for a luxurious estate. Still, each neighborhood offers properties for a variety of budgets and suited to unique styles, allowing anyone to find their perfect fit in the community. Some communities are already sold out, reflecting the high demand and popularity of this new development.

The community center and clubhouse are central to the community and provide ideal space for social gatherings and other events.

Avenir is also committed to sustainability and green living, with a focus on preserving the area's natural beauty. The development includes wide open spaces, parks, and nature trails that promote a healthy lifestyle by encouraging residents to get outside. To minimize the community's carbon footprint, Avenir has put special systems in place to save water and energy. Additionally, a community farm is set to be built, which will supply fresh products to all of the stores and restaurants within the development. Each of these efforts makes Avenir a model of green living, all while still offering modern amenities.

The Bright Future of Avenir Palm Beach Gardens
